

OXFORD BROOKES UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

OXFORD
BROOKES
UNIVERSITY

MA Open Day
4 March 2011, 1-4.30pm

The MA in Music at Oxford Brookes offers four distinctive and exciting pathways:

Music and Popular Culture

Music on Stage and on Screen

Contemporary Practice in Composition

Music in 19th-Century Culture

Come to our open day to find out more about our course and about how studying for an MA in Music can enhance your career prospects. It is also an opportunity to talk to teaching staff and former students and to explore our campus and facilities.

Friday 4 March 2011, Willow Building (room 06), Headington Hill Campus, Oxford Brookes University, OX3 0BT

Programme:

1pm: Welcome from Alexandra Wilson (MA Course Director)

1.15pm: An introduction to our MA in Music

1.45pm: Funding an MA

2pm: Presentations by former MA students

2.30pm: Coffee and meet the staff

3.15pm: Round-table: the benefits of studying for an MA

3.45pm: Tour of the facilities and informal discussion with former students

4.30pm: Close

To register and reserve a place, please fill in the following online booking form by 12pm on Monday 28 February:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/8RV2KHK>

For further information, please email marthacadle@brookes.ac.uk

More information about our MA can be found at:
<http://ah.brookes.ac.uk/music/postgraduate/>